A national curriculum is a common programme of study in schools that is designed to ensure nationwide uniformity of content and standards in education. It is usually legislated by the national government, possibly in consultation with state or other regional authorities.. National curriculum assessment generally means testing of students as to whether they meet the national standards.

Government in Parliament. A key principle of the British Constitution is that the government is responsible to Parliament. This is called responsible government. The United Kingdom is a constitutional monarchy in which the reigning monarch (that is, the King or Queen who is the Head of State at any given time) does not make any open political decisions. All political decisions are taken by ...
