blanket term (plural blanket terms) A word or phrase that is used to describe multiple groups of related things The degree of relation may vary. Blanket terms often trade specificity for ease-of-use; in other words, a blanket term by itself gives little detail about the things that it describes or the relationships between them, but is easy to say and remember.

I'm all about challenging myself in crochet, but sometimes I just need a simple pattern to relax with at the end of a long day. This blanket pattern, made completely of single crochet stitches, has been wonderful for that purpose! I've been wanting to design an all-single-crochet blanket because I think the effect is so modern and sleek.
